

I pay for this service for a reason, because I am tired of listening to the same thing over and over on regular FM stations. On top of great music, XM provides a great service with the local traffic and weather that is often much more reliable than the local FM station's traffic and weather updates. This is a service provided to a PAYING customer, and government interference because local broadcasters are whining and complaining is completely unacceptable.